Dallas DuBois and her merry band of drag stars -- whose DISTORTED DIZNEE show has developed a cult following -- put a drag twist on the holidays in DISTORTED KRISTMESS.
This Las Vegas-style drag extravaganza stars Dallas DuBois, Holly Dae, Bootsie LeFaris, Pixie Aventura, and Tina Burner. It runs for two performances only, November 30 and December 7, at The Laurie Beechman Theatre.

DISTORTED KRISTMESS. takes your holiday favorites and presents them as if they were being viewed through a snow-speckled funhouse mirror. Highlights include a twisted take on Let It Snow, an alternative Grinch, and a warped spin on A Charlie Brown Christmas as well as a special visit from The Port Authority Cockettes, a joyfully downscale version of the celebrated Radio City Rockettes.

DALLAS DUBOIS is a trained musical theater actor whose credits have included film, television and Off-Broadway productions. As a nightlife entertainer Dallas performs regularly at local venues including Barracuda, Industry, The Ritz, Bar-Tini, Boots and Saddle, Evolve and the legendary Stonewall Inn. She was selected as Next Magazine's Who's Next 2010, a Glammy Award nomination, Miss Grove Hotel, and Miss Fire Island Contest's Most Popular 2009. She is also a member of the drag theater company Shim Mamsir.

DISTORTED KRISTMESS. runs Fridays November 30 and December 7 at 10pm. The Laurie Beechman Theater is located inside West Bank Cafe at 407 West 42nd Street -- at Ninth Avenue, accessible from the A,C,E,N,R,V,F,1,2 & 3 trains at 42nd Street). Tickets are $15 (plus a $15 food/drink minimum). To purchase tickets, call 212-352-3101 or visit www.SpinCycleNYC.com
